

Humanities Concentration –

Completion of all English and History and Global Studies requirements plus

Choose 3 from this column – at least one from each department (including one Scholars)

History and Global Studies electives

- Native American History
- International Relations
- Women’s and Gender Studies
- Hitler and Nazi Germany
- Immigration
- African American History
- Latin American History
- History and Film
- Contemporary World Issues
- Economics
- AP Micro and Macroeconomics
- AP Comparative Government and Politics
- Western Religions
- Eastern Religions
- Philosophy
- Ethics and Society

English electives

- Journalism
- Writer’s Workshop

Williston Scholars – In Either Department

Choose 4 from this column -

- Publishing in Janus
- Publishing Willistonian (when not enrolled in the class)
- Participation in Model UN
- Judging a MS Court Case
- Summer Course Work
- Workshops outside of Williston
- Organizing relevant campus events
- Significant participation in relevant clubs
- Attend relevant lectures on campus

NOTES:

- Interested students must fill out an application which includes planning, goal setting, and a statement of interest or intent.
- Signatures of advisor and department chairs needed
- No waivers for other academic or extra-curricular activities shall be granted in pursuit of this concentration
- Students who successfully complete the concentration are be eligible to have the “ Concentration: Humanities” added to their transcript.