

HUMANITIES CONCENTRATION

The Humanities Concentration (English, History and Global Studies) is for students who want to exceed the requirements in both departments by investing extra time, effort, and energy to pursue their passion.

*Students interested in a concentration must meet with the History or English Department Chair to get started.

NAME: _____

GRADE: _____ DATE: _____

To obtain the Humanities concentration designation, students must:

1. Successfully complete the Williston Scholars: History OR Williston Scholars: English course.
2. Complete an additional elective course from each department. Consult the Course of Studies for the complete list of possible courses.

(English Elective) _____

(History and Global Studies Elective) _____

3. Fulfill four of the following activities:

- Publishing in Janus
- Publishing in The Willistonian (when not enrolled in the class)
- Participation in Model UN
- Judging a MS Court Case
- Summer Course Work
- Workshops outside of Williston
- Organizing relevant campus events
- Significant participation in relevant clubs
- Attend relevant lectures on campus

4. Why are you interested in the Humanities Concentration?

5. How do you plan to accomplish the concentration (be specific with dates, etc.)?

Department Chair Approval: _____ Date: _____

Advisor Signature: _____ Date: _____

For office use only:

Student is listed on Concentration spreadsheet for transcript reporting